

BELIEFS

We Believe in

- Expansion of democratic space by adherence to the principles of internal democracy and open primaries (One Member One Vote – OMOV)
- Generational change in political leadership
- Selfless public service (not personal, ethnic or religious)
- Free market with independent regulation free from political interference
- Reduction of the inequality gap between the rich and the poor through provision of social safety nets
- Equal opportunity through quality public education, healthcare and social housing
- Social integration and mobility
- Ethnic & religious harmony
- Transparent political leadership and followership that eschews money politics, bribery, violence, rigging, repression and corruption
- The need to provide effective and constructive opposition to the government of the day with a vibrant research, policy and communication strategy

- Respect for democratic ideals and norms
